

Q Except that he wasn't there?

A Yes, sir.

MR. PFEIFFER: Except that Mr. Hall was not in the house.

Q Did your sister seem very worried about his absence on Friday?

A As I say that day is just hazy. I am verry sorry to have to say it that way, and I suppose if that is brought up as it undoubtedly will be, they willgive me the dickens.

BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q Thursday night, when Mrs. Hall came to your room she was pretty agitated that Mr. Hall had not come home?

A Her voice seemed to be just that way, yes. As I say I didn't see her face because I didn't open the door until I was dressed. I couldn't tell you whether she was dressed at the time or whether she wasn't.

MR. PALZER: How were you dressedthe night you went out?

MR. STEVENS: Dressed the same as I usually am.

Q I mean did you have a coat and hat on?

A I don't think I did; I know I had a hat on.

Q Do you remember if Mrs. Hall had a coat on?

A I couldn't remember, no, sir, I don't.
